M. M. MURDOCK & BROTHER, Proprietors.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL ITEMS OF NEWS.

Oh, no! It never rains in Kansas.

The Newton band is expected here to-day.

Eleven persons are now holding up the county jail.

This is very auspicious weather for displays in spring styles of hosiery.

The K. T. band played several selections at the opera house last night.

We are informed that there is a great deal of small stealing being done in this city.

The morning edition of the DAILY EAGLE was exhausted at an early hour yesterday.

A new safe was yesterday put into the business house of Moffet and Hartzell.

Quite a good-sized audience assembled at the rink last night to hear the negro minstrels.

Remember that the Hyer comedy company will hold the boards at the opera house this evening.

The rain last evening may have been good for corn, but it was rough on the fine decorations about the city.

A marriage license was to-day granted by Probate Judge Jewett, to Nate Simmons and Miss Kate Bailey.

By the Rev. J. D. Hewitt, at the Tremont House, Wichita, May 17th, Mr. B. N. Minton and Miss Ella Montgomery.

The Knights of Pythias parade will take place this afternoon promptly at one o'clock, from in front of the Occidental hotel.

Judge Jewett married at his office on the evening of the 19th, John T. Curtis and Miss Martha Saneons, all of this city.

Quite a number of farmers and their families were in the city yesterday to see the parade of the Knights of Pythias, which didn't come off.

The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias convened yesterday morning at nine o'clock, but adjourned without doing any business of general interest.

There are fewer arrests of a criminal nature in this city than in any city of its size in the state. In fact, our officers haven't enough to do to keep them in practice.

There will be held at Peotone school house, Viola township, Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock, May 21st, a grand temperance mass meeting. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The golden cross division of Atchison, and Knights Templar band of Emporia, arrived here early yesterday morning in a special car. They are taking their meals at the Tremont.

Dr. D. W. Phillips, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Wichita, will deliver a lecture at the new Methodist Episcopal church at Goddard, Kan., on Friday evening, May 30th, at 8 o'clock.

Monday afternoon, as one of the steam engines were being exhibited about the city, it collided with a street car, throwing the latter off the track and nearly upsetting it. No material damage was done.

Several of the visiting Knights who were for the first time in Wichita yesterday, expressed themselves very much surprised at the amount of business our merchants are doing, and say that Wichita is the nicest city they have seen in the west.

Messrs. Terry and Dumont, architects, are preparing elaborate plans for Mr. Tracey's store and opera house, soon to be erected at Clearwater. When completed this will be one of the best business houses in that section of the country.

Considerable excitement was caused at the circus Monday evening by the accidental discharge of a revolver, and for a few moments half the people in the tent thought they had been shot. Fortunately no damage was done except to the rear end of a young man's pants.

Rabbi Benson, of Little Rock, Ark., delivered a very interesting and able lecture at the Presbyterian church last night. His subject was, "Modern Judaism as opposed to Ingersollism doctrine." Those who heard the lecture pronounced it an able and logical one, full of interesting facts, and delivered in a very pleasing manner.

The happiest crowd among all the Knights of Pythias who honored the EAGLE with a call, was the crowd of some twenty or thirty gentlemen composing the Atchison division. They were headed by A. C. McMeken and Ed. Howe, and rain nor mud dampened their exuberance. Col. John A. Martin and Noble Prentiss ought to be happy living in the fellowship of such quiet wholedoled fellows.

E. P. Ford, our efficient county clerk, has a copy of this morning's daily EAGLE (the first legitimate daily ever published in the city), on the margin of which he has had each county officer place his signature. This paper he proposes filing away, not to be opened for twenty years, at which time Mr. Ford thinks it will prove quite a novelty and a valuable keepsake.

The Golden Cross division of Atchison, led by the K. T. band of Emporia, favored our people with a short exhibition drill and some choice music in front of the Occidental yesterday, and were the nucleus of attraction as they passed up street. It's a terrible cloudy day when the Golden Cross division or K. T. band bring up the rear of the procession.

OUR CARRIERS.

AN APOLOGY ALL AROUND.

In the rush and confusion incident to getting the names, residences and places of business of almost a thousand Wichita subscribers to the DAILY EAGLE, and then getting these made up into routes for the carrier boys, a very large number of subscribers were missed yesterday morning. There will not be so many missed this morning by a hundred or so, but still for a week or so mistakes will be almost inevitable. In the meantime, if every one who is missed, will please notify this office, or Mr. Wm. E. Dowdle, who has charge of the city list, mistakes will be remedied, and missing numbers supplied.

HUMPHREYS-McCONKEY.

The Brilliant Wedding of One of Wichita's Best Young Men.

A Fairmount correspondent of the Leavenworth Times furnishes the following account of the wedding of John S. Humphreys, of this city, and Miss Georgia McConkey, which took place at the residence of the bride's father, in Fairmount, on the evening of the 14th:

"The wedding party stood in the front yard in a semicircle, the bride and groom, attended by Mr. Will Humphreys and Miss Emma McConkey, stood on the piazza, the father and mother of the bride on the right, a younger brother and sister on the left, and the officiating clergyman in front; in this attitude the marriage was solemnized, while the gentle zephyrs breathed softly and the twinkling stars looked willingly down and all nature seemed in perfect accord with the joyous occasion. The bride, handsome by nature, was rendered even more so by art; for her dress of rich brown silk and brocade, made a la mode française, and the natural flowers that adorned her person, seemed to add a finishing touch to what nature had already so exquisitely done. The bridegroom, a noble looking man, was attired in the conventional suit of black, with white necktie and kid gloves, all in harmony with Parisian taste. In a word, the happy couple presented a fine picture of health, beauty and refinement.

After the ceremony came a sumptuous feast—a beautiful supper of the good things which the appetite never tires of—ice cream and cake, and the crowd assembled and did justice thereto, to which fact the following named persons can testify: Mr. and Mrs. Stout, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Yoakum, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stearns, Mrs. W. Kistner, Mr. S. Yoakum, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, and the family, Dr. and Mrs. Lobe, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Humphreys, Miss Claude Garrett, Miss Cattie Garrett, Miss Lillie Bell, Miss Mollie Downs, Mrs. S. Yoakum, Mr. E. S. Humphreys, Jr. and Mr. Will Humphreys.

The bride received a great number of rich and costly presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys returned to Wichita last evening, where they will make their future home, Mr. H. being in the employ of Mr. Lawrence, the Douglas avenue druggist. They were received here by numerous friends whose hearty congratulations but echo the sentiment of the whole community. We are pleased to know that the happy couple who start out in life so auspiciously have decided to cast their lot among us, and we trust that their most sanguine dreams of prosperity and happiness may be fully realized.

A RUNAWAY.

A farmer living a few miles east from the city, whose name we were unable to learn, came near meeting with a serious accident Monday evening on his return home from town. He and his family came to the city in a lumber wagon to see the show. All went well until they were about a mile from the city on their way home when the horses, which were quite spirited ones, got frightened, became unmanageable and ran off, running into a fence, upsetting the wagon and throwing the occupants to the ground. Fortunately the occupants were brought to a sudden standstill, which undoubtedly saved some member of the family from serious injury. The horses were soon under control, the wagon set to rights and the family once more on their way, worse scared than hurt.

THE UNION SPY.

The entertainment given at the opera house last evening by the Union Spy amateurs, was far above the average of entertainments of a like nature. The cast was remarkably well chosen, and each performer showed very careful drill. There was hardly a hitch or break in the play from the rise to the fall of the curtain. The persons who assumed the various characters carried them carefully and well, the frequent applause fully proving that the audience was well pleased. When the people of Wichita make up their mind to do a thing, they do it intelligently and well, a fact that has never been more forcibly attested than last night. It is not so much the words of a drama that make it, as it is its intelligent production before the footlights. We have not space to particularize, but as a whole, the Union Spy was rendered in an excellent manner, and we are quite sure the managers can count upon a much more generous patronage to-morrow night.

The women of Wichita, under the Women's Christian Temperance Union, have deposited in the Citizens bank $103.40 net proceeds of their ice cream social. The certificate of deposit has already been placed in the hands of Dr. Phillips, that he may at once lay the corner stone of a new library.
